Georgia, Emanuel County.
This indenture made this 7th day of August, 1924, between Oscar Dasher and Laxie M. Edenfield, both of the county and State aforesaid, Witnesseth that the said Oscar Dasher for and in consideration of the sum of Five Dollars and the natural love and affection he has for Laxie M. Edenfield (his daughter) said Oscar Dasher hereby gives, grants and conveys to the said Laxie M. Edenfield, her heirs, heirs, heirs, heirs and assigns the following property to-wit: All of my life time interest in one certain tract or parcel of land deeded to Laxie M. Dasher by the Estate of Man. Ferry S. Dasher, on the 30th day of October, 1923, being a part of the Oscar Dasher home place containing One Hundred and Fifteen acres more or less, (said deed being recorded in Deed Book B. T. page 726 in the Clerk's office of Emanuel County, Ga.) said deed granting to the said Oscar Dasher full control of said land during his life, and granting to said Oscar Dasher to sell timber off said land during his life, It is distinctly understood that this deed of gift only covers my life time interest in the land, and that it does not convey my interest in the timber or release my right to cut any or all of said timber or to sell any or all said timber during my life time. Together with all rights and privileges thereto belonging except the right to use said timber, in fee simple. In witness whereof the said Oscar Dasher hereunto set his hand and seal the day and year first above written.
